

Superfund Records Center

SITE: Coakley

BREAK: 11.9

OTHER: _____

SDMS DocID 559332

"A" LIST

REVIEW OF

COAKLEY LANDFILL/PROPOSED LIST OF PRP'S

December 12, 1989 - Robert P. Sullivan, City Attorney met with Al LaFrenier, John Reardon, Walter Smart, Robert Springer

1) Advent International Corp.

No recollection

2) Ben's Auto Body

Recalled by all of above

3) Booth Fisheries (Portsmouth)

Recalled by Al LaFrenier, John Reardon, Walter Smart

4) Booth Fisheries Corp. (Boston)

No recollection

5) Bournival, Inc.

No recollection

6) Brady Ford Sales

No recollection

7) Browning-Ferris Corp. (formerly Great Bay Disposal)

Recalled by Al LaFrenier, Walter Smart, Robert Springer, John Reardon

8) Bruno & Stillman Yacht Co.

No recollection

9) Chadwick & Trefethen, Inc.

Al LaFrenier - believes Great Bay picked up their trash

10) Chemical Recovery, Inc.

No recollection

11) Clarostat Mfg. Corp.

Al LaFrenier - This may have been a Great Bay customer. Dover was not allowed to dump in the Coakley Landfill - but there was no way of knowing where the trash brought in by Great Bay came from.

Coldwell Banker/Marple Assoc.

No recollection

Callahan Oil/WHALECO

No recollection

Charmike, Inc.

No recollection

Coast Pontiac-Cadillac
(Formerly Portsmouth Motor Mart)

No recollection

Coastal Auto & Truck

No recollection

Consumat Systems, Inc.

No recollection

Copyrite/Blaisdell Printing

No recollection

Damart

No recollection

Davidson Rubber Co.

No recollection

Doherty Volkswagen (now Seacoast VW)

No recollection

Durell Paving

No recollection

Diamond Lumber Co.

No recollection (Seacoast/Frisbee customer)

Edgewood Manor

No recollection